BREED THEATER.
A large and enthusiastic audience greeted again the splendid bill offered by the management of the Breed Theater, and the frequent and repeated applause bespoke the genuine interest manifested by the audience in the thrilling picture on the bill is the Biograph drama of the great American desert, entitled "The Last Drop of Water." In several of the most sensational scenes, Indians, numbering into the hundreds, appear mounted on their speedy ponies, and attack the white early settlers. Over the mountains into the valleys, down steep precipices, into the inevitable desert, these red men chase the white pioneers, and slimpers of the fighting on the mountain ridges are seen, the silhouetted figures, pale, stricken, almost disappearing at times in the dusk of the evening day. This is one of the strongest Indian pictures seen here this season, and is equalled only by the stirring "Kalen" and "The Lone Soldier of '64." It is a plot depicting the famous girl, heroine, showing her love for her confederate husband. She disguises herself as a warrior, and, finally, in the thick of the war, saves her husband from death in a most thrilling manner.

A supremely tranquil story of life as it is, told in the charming Vita-graph picture entitled "Treasure Trove," and unrivaled comedy completes one of the best bills of the season.

Thirty Years Together.
Thirty years of association—think of it. How the merit of a good thing stands out in time—or the worthlessness of a bad one. The worth of a good thing is proven by the fact that it has stood the test of time. The worth of a bad thing is proven by the fact that it has not stood the test of time. The worth of a good thing is proven by the fact that it has stood the test of time. The worth of a bad thing is proven by the fact that it has not stood the test of time.

Attack Like Tigers.
In fighting to keep the blood pure the white corpuscles attack disease like tigers. But often germs multiply so fast the little fighters are overcome. Then sepsis, blood poisoning, rheumatism and sore throat, and all the ailments of impure blood, attack like tigers. This condition demands Electric Bitters to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to expel poisons from the blood. "They are the best blood purifier," writes C. T. Budahn, of Tracy, Calif. "I have never found them so good as Electric Bitters." They make rich, red blood, strong nerves and build up your health. Try them. 50c at The Lee & Osgood Co.

Loss of Time Means Loss of Pay.
Kidney trouble and the ill it breeds means lost time and lost pay to many a working man. M. Balent, 1214 Little Penna St., Streator, Ill., was so bad from kidney and bladder trouble that he could not work, but he says: "I took Foley Kidney Pills for only a short time and got back to work, and am feeling well and healthier than before." Foley Kidney Pills are tonic in action, quick in result—a good friend to the working man or woman who suffers from kidney ills. The Lee & Osgood Co.

Samuel Rockwell, aged 79, was found dead at his home on Rockwell Hill about 4:30 Sunday morning. He was apparently in his usual health on Saturday and worked about the farm all day. The deceased has been a lifelong resident of Stafford. A general, whole-souled character, unimpaired in mind and body, he was one of the most enthusiastic workers of the party. His stories of how battles at the polls were won and lost a half century ago were particularly interesting.
